

Managing Allegations & the role of the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)

Who should attend?

This ½ day course is designed for Managers in voluntary, independent and statutory agencies who manage staff who work predominantly with children, young people and /or their parents/carers.

Learning Aims

To advise those employing adults to work with children in a paid or unpaid capacity of their duties in respect of dealing with child protection allegations against staff or volunteers.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the session attendees will:

- Have awareness of process and procedures for managing allegations and serious concerns about professional practice
- Have an understanding of national and local guidance in relation to managing allegations
- Consider the employees role and responsibilities and be clear about what to do if an allegation or concern is received about a member of staff or volunteer
- Have knowledge of the process of implementing policies and strategies for staff/volunteers/carers in relation to minimising the risk of allegations and strategies for coping if they occur.

Dates and Times

22nd May 2017
0930-1230

14th September 2017
0930-1230

6th November 2017
0930-1230

15th January 2018
0930-1230

Venue: Will be confirmed upon booking

Facilitators: Steve Hall and Adam Fearon-Stanley, LADO, Croydon Council

How to Book

Bookings can now only be made through Croydon 'My Account'. Details on how to do this can be found at <http://croydonlcsb.org.uk/professionals/learning-development/>